CHAMPION MACHINE REPAIRS.—I have on hands such as are generally needed and if parties in need of such repairs will call on me, I can frequently save them annoying delays and expense. Geo. D. Wearin.

MAN SHOT.—In a row at Liberty Tuesday Wm. Branson was mortally shot by the Thompson boys. This information came via telephone from Hustonville, and we were unable to get further particulars.

MR. A. M. FELAND is authorized to collect the back tax due him in the same manner as if he was sheriff. The law passed by the last legislature for his benefit expressly says so, at least all the lawyers concur in it.

THE Citizens National Bank of Lancaster began business February 26th. It had been in operation less than four months when the report published elsewhere was made but it shows that it has already struck a thriving business.

ALL accounts and notes due Chenault Severance & Co. are now in my hands for collection. I can be found until July 15th at the store of Edmiston & Owsley, all remaining unsettled at this time will be placed in the hands of an officer for collection. I mean all, and will make no exception. E. R. Chenault.

THE three banks in this county have individual deposits amounting to $347,783.15. We learn that the Farmers National Bank of this place will likely declare a semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent, and that the new First National will declare 3 per cent. The Hustonville National has been running but two months but its showing is a good one.

THE new money order card, which can be bought at all money order offices after July 1st, solves the question of how to get money to a newspaper cheaply and safely. For three cents a card will be issued good for any sum of $5 and under and will be payable at any office within sixty days after its issuance. When you read this item go right to the post office buy a card for $2.50 and remit it to us. If you want to be happy you will have to be honest.

NOTWITHSTANDING there is now a direct mail connection, the subscribers of the INTERIOR JOURNAL along the line of the C. & O. R. R. rarely get their papers on the day of publication. This failure is the result of gross carelessness somewhere and we have reported the matter to the head office for investigation. It is never our fault that there is delay in the receipt of our papers. We print them on the night preceding the day of issue and mail them with the regularity of clock-work.

LITTLE Kendrick, the three-year-old son of J. W. Alcorn, Esq., was conversing with the cook the other day on the question of his being, when he enquired did "Dad make me?" Getting an affirmative answer, he continued, "And did he make Green?" referring to a little negro boy who lived there and who is as black as the ace of spades. "Yes, he made him too." "His hands must be mighty dirty den," replied the young philosopher and the cook couldn't gainay the assention.

HIT AND CUT.—Sam Helm and Yerba Hoskins had a difficulty at Junction City Tuesday, over a remark the former was alleged to have made about the latter's wife, when Hoskins struck Helm over the head with a car pin, nearly knocking the top off. Although considerably stunned Helm was able to go for his assailant with a knife with which he inflicted two flesh wounds on his breast and three on his back. Both are quite painfully hurt. They were arrested and tried when Hoskins was fined $5 and Helm acquitted.

K. C. R. R.—All of the property of the L. & N. has been ordered to be removed from the Richmond Branch to-day, and tomorrow the side tracks will be changed to the gauge of its owner the Kentucky Central, which is 4 feet 8 1/2 inches. On Sunday the gauge of the whole line will be changed and on Monday the K. C. will run its own cars. It is understood that in addition to the trains that now run on the line, an accommodation train will leave here at 4 A. M. arriving in Cincinnati about 9:30, returning in the afternoon and reaching here about 9 o'clock.

MARRIAGES.
—Mr. Wm. Joslin and Miss Alice Gertrude Millers, were damed of 15, were married on the 27th at Mr. Larkin Vanhook's.

—At Mr. W. A. McLargue's yesterday Sam'l F. Reynolds and Miss Sarah Jane McLargue were made one flesh. Mr. Reynolds has been a bridegroom before.

—The Walnut Street Baptist church, Louisville, Ky., has raised nearly $48,000 for benevolent purposes during the two years of the Rev. Dr. T. T. Eaton's pastorate.

—Rev. H. C. Morrison's meeting at Bright's School-House closed Tuesday night with two confessions, one of whom joined the Methodist and the other the Baptist Church. He will begin another meeting at Hall's Gap Sunday night.

—The Baptist pastor at Shelbyville, Ind., does not weigh more than 125 pounds, and one of his young women converts not less than 300. The rite of immersion, under the circumstances, drew a great crowd, and expectations were realized, for the minister and the expeditious had to be helped out of the water.

—The "Rev." Gould threatens a libel suit against the Lexington Transcript because of the comments that paper makes on his outrageous conduct towards the old colored preacher. If the sweet-scented gentleman sues all the papers that have condemned his conduct he will have his hands full for the next year or so.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP.
—July wheat was down to $1.01 in Chicago, Wednesday.

—Alvah Pullins bought of James Martin a yoke of cattle for $125.

—Wheat cutting has commenced, but it can only be done between the showers.

—A trader bought in Scott county this week 200 acres of wheat at $1 per bushel.

—Burgess, Gentry & Co., of Lexington, sold 20 head of mules to G. C. Bennett, of Richmond, Va., at $187 per head.

—G. C. Duncan, of Wayne, will be in Stanford next Monday, County Court day, with a fine lot of cattle, including several good yoke of oxen.

—A ewe belonging to the flock of David Wolf, of Summit, Cloud county, Kan., recently gave birth to four lambs, all of which are alive and thriving.

—The Hamiltons, of Montgomery county, Ky., disposed of the first division of their Short-horn cattle at Chicago, Wednesday. Forty-six head brought $20,855, an average of $454.

—CINCINNATI.—The cattle market is quiet and lower at 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 for common; medium 3 1/2 to 4; good to extra butcher grades 4 1/2 to 5; good to choice shipper 4 1/2 to 5.85; common and feeders 4 to 5. Hogs are firm with light shippers in active demand. Prices range from 5 for common to 6 1/2 cents for best shippers. Sheep are steady at 3 to 5; stock weathers 3 1/2 to 4; do. ewes 3 to 3 1/2. Lambs sell readily at prices ranging from 4 1/2 to 6.35.

BOYLE COUNTY.
Dayville.
—License were issued by the County Clerk on Wednesday for the marriage of Mr. John W. Starkey to Miss Amelia C. Caldwell.

—Father W. R. Burk, a young priest who has a church at Florence, is here visiting friends. Father Burk spent the earlier years of his life in Danville, where he is much liked.

—Mr. Thos. P. Jones, of Hudson, New York, on Tuesday, bought of a Boyle county dealer a fine bay gelding saddle animal, 15 h. 3 in. high for $225; from the same party a fine 16 h. 3 in. mare for $265.

—The residence of Mr. Jas. Wilson, in the southwestern portion of town caught fire and burned to the ground on Wednesday morning. Loss about $1,200, insurance $150 in the Phoenix of Hartford, Conn. Mr. Wilson is a poor man with a family, and his loss falls heavily upon him. The loss includes household furniture, clothing, in fact every thing. A fine opportunity is now open for the affluent and well to do, to help a poor and worthy man.

—Hon. William O'Bradley, a distinguished gentleman whose name denotes a Celtic origin, was in town Wednesday and Thursday on business connected with the welfare of the "grand old party." Mrs. Jas. Kinnaird and Mrs. W. S. Rowland, entertained their friends at the residence of the latter lady from 4 to 8 o'clock, Tuesday evening. Misses Boyle O. Rodas, Eugene McQuinn and John W. Yerkes are at Cumberland Falls roustabouting. The Falls under the management of Mr. S. Owens is a delightful retreat from heated cities and towns.

—The Opera-House enterprise seems to be in about this shape: A stock company have contracted for ground on Main street between the property of J. M. Hackney and that of Samuel Larimer. The lot has a front of 72 feet and runs back 160 feet. An attorney is taking steps to secure a clear title, and when that is done, the lot will be paid for and a building erected at an estimated cost of $15,000. When completed the structure will be leased for ten years to Messrs. S. G. Boyle, James Kinnaird, A. B. Robertson, H. W. Evans, C. R. Anderson and W. S. Rowland.

—On Wednesday evening about 3 o'clock as Mr. M. C. Thurman, State Agent for Sayres & Scovill, buggy manufacturers of Cincinnati, was passing that point between Hustonville and Stanford where the railroad crosses the turnpike, his horse became frightened at a passing train and ran away.

Two valuable vehicles were behind the horse, and as several men tried to stop him and failing it was feared they (the vehicles, not the men), would be dashed to pieces. When, however, the runaway had reached a point about a mile from Hustonville, he was met by Miss Lou Dye and two other young ladies who were walking along the road. Miss Dye sprang at the frightened animal and after a sharp struggle succeeded in doing what several brawny lords of creation had failed to do, viz: stopping him. She tied the horse to the fence and went her way, seemingly unconscious that she had performed a daring act. Mr. Thurman is very thankful to the lady, and will not cease looking for what a friend of hers suggested as a reward for her heroism, but declares his disability in being able to find a worthy specimen.

PULASKI COUNTY.
Somerset.
—Marshal Hamford has resigned and our town is now without a marshal.
—Charlie Malabary has returned to his farm near here and will run the blackberry trade again this season.

—Mr. A. D. Noel, of Crittenden, has leased Masonic College and will be ready to open the school in September.

—A man named Jim Flynn was killed by a pistol shot near Barroside last Sunday in a drunken row. It is not known who did the killing, but it is charged to Wash and Lee Hollars.

—The old Southern Methodist church has been torn down and the congregation is renewing its efforts to raise funds for the erection of a new building. I understand they have about $800 subscribed.

—Many of our farmers commenced cutting their wheat last week, and others are busy in harvest this week, though the continued rains have seriously interfered with their progress, and it is feared the crops will be injured. The yield is generally very good.

—The officials here have received inquiry from the sheriff of Adams county, Mo., about the killing of a man named Cooper, who is now in jail there on the charge of horse-stealing and has confessed that he killed Cooper.

—Dr. Wirt and Miss Maggie Dunn were married Thursday morning and took the noon train for Lexington. Dr. Wirt's old home. His mother was here to attend the wedding. On the return of the doctor and his bride, they will board with Mr. E. M. Poreh until their cottage is finished. Dr. Wirt has won numerous friends since his residence here, all of whom extend their best wishes to him and his fair bride during their voyage on the sea of matrimony. May their voyage be always a happy one.

MT. VERNON DEPARTMENT.
Managed by John B. Fish.
—An infant of James Baker died last Saturday night.

—Wheat harvest has begun. There is not over half a crop, but the quality is No. 1.

—Work on James Mare's mill is progressing slowly, on account of the weather being so wet.

—Farmers are plowing over their corn for the last time. The season has been rather wet, but the corn looks well, though there are some weeds. Oats are better than usual.

—The prisoners in jail made an attempt to get out a few days ago by sawing into the hinges of the door. They had gotten and old case-knife blade and a piece of file and made a saw by these means, and had sawed one hinge in two before it was discovered. The door works very smoothly and in opening it Mr. Hook noticed a scratching noise, and on examination noticed the hinges as above.

—Stephen Whitehead and your correspondent attended the ordination of Rev. J. R. VanNuy as a minister of the Presbyterian Church, at Livingston, Wednesday night. The services were performed by Drs. McClellan and Lapsley, of Lebanon. They were very impressive. After church the Mt. Vernon party repaired to the residence of Mr. Sam Ward, where they spent the night, up to nearly 1 A. M., very pleasantly, returning on the 1:30 train.

—J. W. Brown and wife have taken rooms at the Newcomb Hotel. Miss Rose Reppert will teach the Mt. Vernon school, Miss Sallie Whitehead will teach the Livingston school and Miss Virgie Reppert will teach the Pine Hill school. Misses Jael Reid and Cleo Williams went to Lancaster yesterday to attend the Hop to-night. Several others will go to-day. Mr. Wm. Ward, who spent the winter in North Carolina, is paying a visit to friends and relatives in this and Garrard county. Elder Eugene Snodgrass, of Lexington, is visiting in this county. Willis Adams, Jr., of Paint Lick, was in town this week. The following persons have been visiting in this vicinity in the last few days: Capt. T. J. Ballard, of Goodrich; Col. Sam Burdett, of Lancaster; Mrs. J. S. Fish, Miss Sallie Fish and Mr. Stark Fish, Crab Orchard; Mrs. Tiliha Gresham and Miss Alice Ward, of Livingston; J. L. Whitehead, Williamsburg; Misses Rowland and Virgie Reppert, Sallie Whitehead and Casper Williams, Garrard Thompson.
